Thank you for your application.

- Please be advised that Fusion Performing Arts Alliance will award only partial scholarships. The awards are based on financial need. In addition to financial need, we will also consider volunteering, fundraising participation and the student’s level of dedication.
- The awards will be based on the funds available to the Alliance at the time of the scholarship deadline.
- All the applications will be reviewed at the same time, immediately after the deadline.
- There is a cap on what an individual student can receive in a 10-month period.
- If a scholarship is awarded for Fusion Dance Academy tuition, it will be paid out over a 10-month period. If the student quits or drops in that 10-month period, the award ends immediately. The award does not continue to the next session.
- If additional information is needed, a Fusion Performing Arts Alliance Board Member could be contacting you.
- As stated above, the Alliance will keep all information in this application confidential. In return, we ask that awards be kept confidential as well.
